

present continuous

1. Form sentences in the present continuous using the following words:

Example: She / buy / some flowers /

She is buying some flowers.

- a. My father / work / now.

- b. Tom and Mary / play / tennis.

- c. Sheila / swim / in the sea.

- d. They / drive / very fast.

- e. The dogs / bark / at the moment.

- f. Peter / do / his homework / right now.

2. Make questions to the sentences in exercise 1 starting by Why...? as in the example:

Example: Why is she buying some flowers?

- a. _____ ?

- b. _____ ?

- c. _____ ?

- d. _____ ?

- e. _____ ?

- f. _____ ?

3. Put these sentences into interrogative and negative:

Example: Sam is travelling to the USA this week.

Int.: Is Sam travelling to the USA this week?

Neg.: Sam isn't travelling to the USA this week.

- a. Susan is eating a sandwich now.

- b. My friends are learning French.

c. I am listening to music now.

d. You are writing a letter.

e. Those people are fighting.

present continuous

1. Form sentences in the present continuous using the following words:

Example: She / buy / some flowers /

She is buying some flowers.

- a. My father / work / now.

My father is working now.

- b. Tom and Mary / play / tennis.

Tom and Mary are playing tennis.

- c. Sheila / swim / in the sea.

Sheila is swimming in the sea.

- d. They / drive / very fast.

They are driving very fast.

- e. The dogs / bark / at the moment.

The dogs are barking at the moment.

- f. Peter / do / his homework / right now.

Peter is doing his homework right now.

2. Make questions to the sentences in exercise 1 starting by Why...? as in the example:

Example: Why is she buying some flowers?

- a. Why is your father working now?
- b. Why are Tom and Mary playing tennis?
- c. Why is Sheila swimming in the sea?
- d. Why are they driving very fast?
- e. Why are the dogs barking at the moment?
- f. Why is Peter doing his homework right now?

3. Put these sentences into interrogative and negative:

Example: Sam is travelling to the USA this week.

Int.: Is Sam travelling to the USA this week?

Neg.: Sam isn't travelling to the USA this week.

- a. Susan is eating a sandwich now.

Is Susan eating a sandwich now?

Susan isn't eating a sandwich now.

- b. My friends are learning French.

Are my friends learning French?

My friends aren't learning French.

c. I am listening to music now.

Am I listening to music now?

I am not listening to music now.

d. You are writing a letter.

Are you writing a letter?

You aren't writing a letter

e. Those people are fighting.

Are those people fighting?

Those people aren't fighting.