Cross-curricular extension unit 4

Language and literature: Drama

1 Read a student's description of a play. Then match 1-7 with a-g.

'King Lear' is a famous play by William Shakespeare. It's a tragedy about an old man and his three daughters in England. He asks his daughters if they love him. He doesn't like his younger daughter's answer, so he's very angry. But then he finds out that he's wrong about her. The other daughters aren't very nice. They're horrible to their father, and he becomes very sad. The younger daughter wants to help her father, but he dies. It's a really sad play.

Act I, scene I

JESS: CASSIE: CASSIE:	[A party at Cassie's house.] [Someone knocks* at the door.] Cassie, there's someone at the door. Cassie! CASSIE! What? Oh, sorry, Jess. It's noisy in here. [Someone knocks again.] Coming! [Cassie opens the door.] Oh, hi Matt. Come in! [Matt and Cassie walk across the room.] Matt, meet my friend, Jess. Jess, meet my boyfriend, Matt. He's an actor I sometimes help him with his costumes.
	[Another person knocks.]
CASSIE:	Oh no, I've got to go – again! See you in a minute!
JESS:	[Interested] An actor? Wow, that's really interesting. I go to drama school on Saturdays
MATT:	Yes, I know. You're in my dad's class. He talks about you a lot. He thinks you're really good
JESS:	[surprised] Mr Wright is your dad?
0200.	Yes, you look a bit like him.
MATT:	Er thanks I think!
JESS:	So, are you in any plays at the moment?
MATT:	Yes, I'm in Romeo and Juliet at the city theatre. I'm Romeo.
JESS:	Oh, I love that play! It's my favourite!
MATT:	Really? Me too. Cassie hates it. She doesn't like tragedies Listen, why don't you come and see it? It's on all summer.
JESS:	Sounds great! If Cassie doesn't mind
